

AMOS LAPIDOT Maj Gen. (Res)

PERSONAL

Born in Israel, 1934. Married, 4 children

QUALIFICATIONS:

1970 BA in Mathematics, Tel Aviv University.
1981 Master's degree in Engineering Economic Systems, Stanford Uni.
USA

MILITARY CAREER:

1983-1987 Commander of the Israeli Air Force.
1981-1982 Head of the "Lavie" project, Israeli indigenous fighter aircraft.
1977-1979 Chief of Operations and Deputy Commander IAF.
1975-1977 Chief of the Air Force Intelligence.
1954-1975 Active fighter pilot in the IAF, Squadron and Wing Commander.
1953-1954 Drafted into the Israel defense forces and graduated as a fighter pilot with distinction.

CIVILIAN CREER

1998-2001 President of the TECHNION - Israel Institute of Technology.
1988- To date Owner and CEO of Mouda Ltd, consulting.
1988-1998 Chairman, Executive committee of Tel Aviv Uni. Authority for applied Research & development (Ramot Ltd)
1988-1998 Member of the Executive Committee of Tel Aviv University.
1991-1998 Special Assistant to the Minister of Defense.
1991- To date Member of the board of a number of public and commercial companies (El AL, Rafael, Malibu, Iscal, ICTS, Merhav.)

PUBLIC SERVICE

1988-1999 President of the Air Force Association.
2004- To date Chairman of A NEW WAY, a non profit organization.

AWARDS

Honorary Doctorate for public service - University of New Haven.
'Legion of Merit' - by the Government of the US.